A brilliant opportunity to acquire an immaculately presented semi-detached cottage, situated in the very desirable semi-rural hamlet of Wallis, Haverfordwest. The character cottage retains many original features, and has been tastefully decorated throughout. Boasting a wealth of charm, the property provides a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The cottage would make an ideal property for a small family, holiday home or retirement property. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all it has to offer!

From the moment you enter the cottage, it does not fail to impress. An entrance hall leads through into the timeless cottage kitchen/diner, which features exposed beams, solid wood kitchen, Belfast sink and Rangemaster. The ground floor also accommodates the cosy living room with snug area. Laid with herringbone flooring, the living space provides the ideal space to relax with family and friends. A staircase leads upstairs, where the tasteful decor continues. The first floor is home to the modern bathroom, and two double bedrooms, both featuring those gorgeous exposed beams. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing, oil central heating and is served by a sewerage treatment plant.

Externally, a paved area to the front provides a great seating area, with the driveway and majority of the garden located across the lane from the property. The gravelled off road parking offers space for two vehicles and is home to storage shed and utility area. Steps lead up to the mature lawned garden, which provides a garden room with hot tub, vegetable patch and outbuildings. The garden is is ideal for any keen gardener or those wanting to immerse themselves in nature. The outbuildings also offer options to create a workshop area, or simply great storage.

Wallis is approximately eight miles north of the county town of Haverfordwest, and three miles from the village of Spittal, with its new and popular primary school. The nearest railway station is also three miles away at Clarbeston Road. It is ideally situated for access to the popular towns of Haverfordwest, Fishquard and Narberth. Pembrokeshire's beautiful sandy beaches and rocky coves are within easy driving distance.
