The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Tucked away in a very desirable street in Pwll we have for sale this stunning "turn-key", detached property which sits perfectly proud on a quarter of an acre overlooking the beautiful landscaped gardens. A traditionally built property which offers a lot of charm to the next lucky buyer from a multi-fuel burner in the lounge to the most stunning bespoke solid wood kitchen, quartz worktops, "Neff" integrated appliances and plenty of cupboard space. Immaculately presented internally as well as externally and we here at West Wales Properties highly recommend a viewing just for you to be dazzled by the size, location and most of all the presentation. Call us today on 01554 759655 to get your viewing booked in. EPC RATING D.

Accommodation comprises : Spacious and welcoming hall, lounge with multi-fuel burner, cloakroom, inner hallway, a stunning bespoke fitted kitchen/diner, utility room, conservatory, landing bathroom and three bedrooms-master bedroom having a "Juliet balcony" and also loft ladder from this room that takes you to a boarded loft space complete with a viewing window for a glimpse of the coast. Externally the total plot size measures quarter of an acre and has a long driveway, carport to the front and side. To the rear an idyllic garden that offers all round enjoyment any season, with beautiful shrubs and flowering plants bordering a lush-green lawn, apple tree, vegetable plot, good-sized patio area, greenhouse, shed and two further seating areas.

Pwll is a small coastal village located between Llanelli and Burry Port. The town is concentrated along the north of the A484. The land rises away from the coast providing a view of the Gower Peninsula (Penrhyn Gwyr). The area is also where The Millennium Coastal Path runs, allowing cyclists to get between Burry Port and Llanelli. The coastal path is within walking distance of the property.
