The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Situated on the crossroads of Cynheidre, a sleepy little hamlet, we have this charming stone-fronted cottage for sale, extensively renovated and improved by the current owners. Never a truer example of a cottage on show here today, from the stone-faced walls and beamed ceilings to the log-burners and low window sills, step inside and see for yourselves. Sitting on a plot size of 0.78 of an acre, with a good-sized rear garden containing a mini-orchard, two wild ponds, beautiful flowering shrubs and trees dotted about, offering you the lucky buyer quiet. EPC RATING G. COUNCIL TAX BAND D.

Accommodation comprises a rear hallway, wet room, lounge with log-burner, sitting room/dining room with log-burner, kitchen, conservatory, landing, and three bedrooms. Externally, the property sits on a plot measuring 0.78 of an acre with stone-built outbuildings, a mini-orchard, off-road parking, and a second garden with two wild ponds (very overgrown)—a garden full of natural beauty!

Cynheidre is a little hamlet in the Gwendraeth Fawr valley, in Carmarthenshire, South Wales. It straddles the B4309 road and lies southwest of Pontyberem, north of Fiveroads, and east of Kidwelly. Nearby cities and villages include Pont-Henri, Pontyates, and Carway. Cynheidre was once home to the Cynheidre Colliery, which is now closed and has become quite popular with cyclists who appreciate the major cycle route that weaves its way through Cynheidre en route from Carmarthen to the Gower Peninsula.
