The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Situated in one of Dafen's popular ex-local authority estates where the neighbours are friendly and the convenient location is a bonus for families or someone who commutes using the M4, we have for sale this double-fronted, semi-detached property. Chain-free, ready to view, and ready to move into with just a bit of deco change if need be, so could you be the next lucky purchaser? Call us on 01554 759655 to arrange your viewing today. EPC RATING C. COUNCIL TAX BAND B.

Accommodation comprises : Hallway, sitting/dining room, lounge, galley kitchen, understairs storage, landing shower room, three bedrooms all with built-in cupboard space. Externally, the property sits on an even plot with a pleasant frontage laid with decorative chippings and a driveway to the side and secure gated pedestrian access into the rear garden. The rear garden is a mixture of patio and lawn with a greenhouse and mature shrub borders, outhouse, small storage shed and large storage shed.

Llanelli is the largest town in the county of Carmarthenshire and home to the Scarlets, a famous rugby union club. Located on the Loughor estuary, some 10 miles (16 km) north-west of Swansea and 12 miles (19 km) south-east of the county town, Carmarthen, Llanelli is also well-known for the prime coastal location which attracts thousands of visitors each year—accommodating an array of primary and secondary schools both in English and Welsh medium, CCTA college, hospital and popular retail parks along with the local shops in the town centre and Llanelli Beach where you can pick up the Millennium Coastal Path and enjoy the natural beauty on your travels.
