The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

We are welcoming to the market a well-presented character four-bedroom townhouse. With original features, high ceilings and bay windows, this is a beautiful family home located on the edge of Milford Haven, within walking distance to Local Shops, Schools and Restaurants.

The ground floor offers a vestibule with original features, a hallway, an open-plan living area, kitchen/dining room with 1920's bread oven and rear access to the garden. The first floor boasts of four bedrooms, one of which has its own roll top bath installed. The first floor also has a family bathroom.

To the rear is an enclosed easily maintained courtyard garden, with outbuilding, which offers access to lane behind the property.

This property would make a superb family home and needs to be viewed to appreciate all it has to offer.

Milford Haven has the largest port in Wales and the third-largest port in the United Kingdom. It also has a popular Marina with accompanying Restaurant, Wine Bar, and boutique shops. The town itself has a historic late 18th and 19th centuries core based on a grid pattern, located between Hubberston Pill and Castle Pill and extending inland for 500 metres. Milford Haven's 20th-century expansion took in several other settlements. Hakin and Hubberston are older and situated to the west of the main town. The town also benefits from a variety of shops and supermarkets, leisure centre, primary and secondary schools, and the Torch Theatre and Cinema.
