The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Bryn Hyfred is a detached dormer bungalow located in the Steynton area of Milford Haven.

The accommodation comprises of a vestibule, lounge, dining room, kitchen, bathroom and two bedrooms, with loft room currently currently used as a third bedroom. Bryn Hyfred has great potential and would be ideal as a family home, or an investment property, It also offers many character features, it also benefits from gas central heating and partial double glazing.

Externally, to the front is a stone wall with a feature tiled pathway leading to the front door, with a lawned area to either side. To the rear of the property is a good sized garden, mainly laid to lawn and to the side of the property is a driveway which has ample room for multiple vehicles and an existing hard standing for a garage.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the space, layout and location of this ideal family home.

Milford Haven has the largest port in Wales, and the third largest port in the United Kingdom. It also has a popular Marina with accompanying Restaurant, Wine Bar, and boutique shops. The town itself has a historic late 18th and 19th centuries core based on a grid pattern, located between Hubberston Pill and Castle Pill and extending inland for 500 metres. Milford Haven's 20th century expansion took in several other settlements. Hakin and Hubberston are older, and situated to the west of the main town. The town also benefits from a variety of shops and supermarkets, leisure centre, primary and secondary schools, and the Torch Theatre and Cinema.
