The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A detached bungalow situated within a popular residential area on the edge of Milford Haven town close to local amenities. The properties layout offers versatile accommodation and the potential for generational living with the option to create an annexe.

The accommodation briefly comprises; entrance porch, lounge, kitchen/diner, study, master bedroom with ensuite shower room and walk in wardrobe, four further bedrooms, bathroom, integral garage, utility room and shower room. The property benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.

Externally to the front is a brick block drive which offers ample off road parking. To the rear is an enclosed garden which is mainly laid to lawn with a decked seating area and workshop. The garden can be accessed off the kitchen, study and bedroom through bi-folding doors.

To appreciate this property we highly recommend a viewing.

Milford Haven has the largest port in Wales and the third-largest port in the United Kingdom. It also has a popular Marina with accompanying Restaurant, Wine Bar, and boutique shops. The town itself has a historic late 18th and 19th centuries core based on a grid pattern, located between Hubberston Pill and Castle Pill and extending inland for 500 metres. Milford Haven's 20th-century expansion took in several other settlements. The town also benefits from a variety of shops and supermarkets, leisure centre, primary and secondary schools, and the Torch Theatre and Cinema.

DIRECTIONS

From our Milford haven office proceed towards Steynton turning into Westhill estate and left into Westhill Avenue where you will find the property on your left hand side. What3words#author.take.otherwise
