OUTSIDE:

The property is situated along a peaceful country lane, leading to a spacious parking area that comfortably fits two vehicles. In the corner, an old stone built stable block with two bays, a concrete base, and a corrugated roof. Steps guide you up to the terraced gardens, where the first level is primarily laid to lawn, complemented by a rockery garden and creatively arranged raised beds with a wide variety of flowers and shrubs. Next to the porch and kitchen under a glazed roof pergula, a paved and gravelled sun terrace provides an ideal spot for alfresco dining, positioned to take in the property's tranquil surroundings and views of the neighbouring woodlands. Stone slabs lead to a series of wooden outbuildings, currently used by the current owner to house cats, each equipped with power and light. The top tier of the garden features a further extensive sloped lawn, offering additional outdoor space wrapping around three sides of the property and leading to the adjoining outdoor storage bay.

SERVICES:

Mains electric and water. Solid fuel heating system and private drainage. Council Tax Band G. EPC Rating F.

DIRECTIONS:

From Monmouth take the B4293 road towards Chepstow and proceed for about 3 miles over the brow of the hill. Turn left at post signed The Narth and Whitebrook, continue down this lane for 1.4 miles and Woodview will be found in on the right after The Whitebrook restaurant. What3words:///masts.taped.cuff
