Bramley Barn

Ross-on-Wye

This outstanding, 5-bedroom, Grade II listed barn conversion is set in a truly idyllic rural location. Set in 2.2 acres of beautifully landscaped formal gardens, sun terraces and an enclosed paddock of pastureland overlooking the neighbouring apple orchard. Sympathetically extended and restored, offering beautifully appointed accommodation over three floors with a wealth of character and original features throughout. Private sweeping driveway and substantial detached double garage.

The property is traditionally constructed with an exposed stone exterior and inset wooden framed double-glazed windows and doors set under a pitched tiled roof. Internal features include original arrow slit windows with oak lintels and slate sills, part glazed and vertically boarded doors with Suffolk latches, exposed beams, trusses and stonework, a feature inglenook fireplace and a combination of wooden boarded, slate and carpeted flooring. An LPG fired central heating system supplies domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout.

The main entrance is from the front garden through a wooden framed door with matching full height side panels into:
