Llanvair Kilgeddin, Abergavenny

Located in an elevated position with panoramic views of the open countryside is this handsome country residence with 7 en-suite bedrooms set around an outstanding central galleried hall and landings. Set in 2.66 acres of paddocks, gardens and terraces with a meandering driveway and large garage. The conversion from the original farmhouse was executed to the highest of standards over its 3 well-appointed floors, utilising high quality craftsmanship and materials throughout.

The building has a painted, rendered exterior with inset double-glazed windows and doors, all set under pitched slate roofs. The wealth of internal features include hardwood, boarded and laminated floors, ceramic, travertine and flagstone floors, hardwood panelled doors, bespoke panelled doors, moulded architraves and skirtings, hardwood double glazed windows, hardwood staircases, barley sugar balustrading, moulded handrails and newels, ornate coved ceilings and ceiling roses, deep hardwood windowsills, feature fireplaces, wood burners and low voltage downlighters. Oil fired central heating with radiators throughout with bespoke radiator covers.

The approach is from the gravelled driveway across a paved terrace into an open fronted porch with glazing on each side and through a pair of panelled doors with a glazed panel over into galleried entrance hallway.
