May Cottage Llandogo, Monmouth

Nestled in an elevated position in the heart of the Wye Valley, is this stylishly presented four-bedroom family home with exceptional views overlooking the river and surrounding countryside. Located in an area of outstanding natural beauty, the property has been sympathetically modernised with light and airy accommodation throughout whilst retaining its original features and charm. Thoughtfully designed terraced gardens and off-road parking for one vehicle.

Asking price of £550,000 Freehold

The property is traditionally constructed with a painted, rendered exterior and inset double glazed windows and doors set under pitched slate roofs. Internal features include sectional radiators, exposed stonework and beams, low voltage downlighters, panelled and part glazed wooden doors, two wood burners, dado rails and a combination of quality laminate, ceramic tiled and carpeted flooring. An oil-fired boiler provides domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout.

The main entrance to the property is through a feature portico entrance and through a part glazed door into:

Chrome towel rail. Door into utility cupboard with water cylinder and space and plumbing for washing machine/tumble dryer. Linen cupboard with full height wooden slatted shelving. Roof access hatch.

OUTSIDE:

At the front of the property, there is a parking area with an electric vehicle charging point and space for one vehicle. Stone steps lead up to the beautifully landscaped, tiered gardens, which are meticulously maintained and bordered by lush, well-stocked herbaceous beds. The garden has been thoughtfully designed to make the most of the property's elevated position, offering stunning views over the Wye Valley and beyond. A series of level lawned terraces are interspersed with a variety of trees, shrubs and plants. A pebbled pathway winds through the garden to a newly constructed outdoor office, fully equipped with electricity, heating, and power. Set to the side is a handy plastic shed and a greenhouse. At the top of the garden, a spacious pebbled patio and seating area provide the perfect setting for alfresco dining and entertaining, while taking full advantage of the property's spectacular location.

SERVICES:

Mains water, electric and drainage. An oil-fired central heating system. EPC Rating E. Council Tax Band F.

DIRECTIONS:

From Monmouth take the A466 Wye Valley Road passing through Redbrook and over Bigsweir bridge and onto the village of Llandogo. May Cottage is the sixth property from the end of the village on the right-hand side.
