Mae House, Tintern, The Wye Valley

Originally built in the late 1860's, this pretty 4-bedroom chapel conversion has been sympathetically restored and renovated whilst retaining a wealth of original Victorian features. Occupying an idyllic location in the heart of the Wye Valley in an area of outstanding natural beauty, the property is conveniently located between Monmouth and Chepstow. Private off-road parking for two vehicles and an enclosed low maintenance garden.

Asking price of £649,000 Freehold

Converted in 2004, the property is traditionally constructed in stone with inset arched, leaded and stained-glass windows set under a pitched tiled roof. Internal features include a contemporary style wood burner, vaulted ceilings with exposed beams, bespoke joinery, ledged and braced doors with suffolk latches, moulded skirting boards and a combination of stone, tiled and wooden boarded flooring. An oil-fired boiler provides domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout.

The main entrance to the property is through the front garden and through a studded hardwood front door into:
