

Elevator™

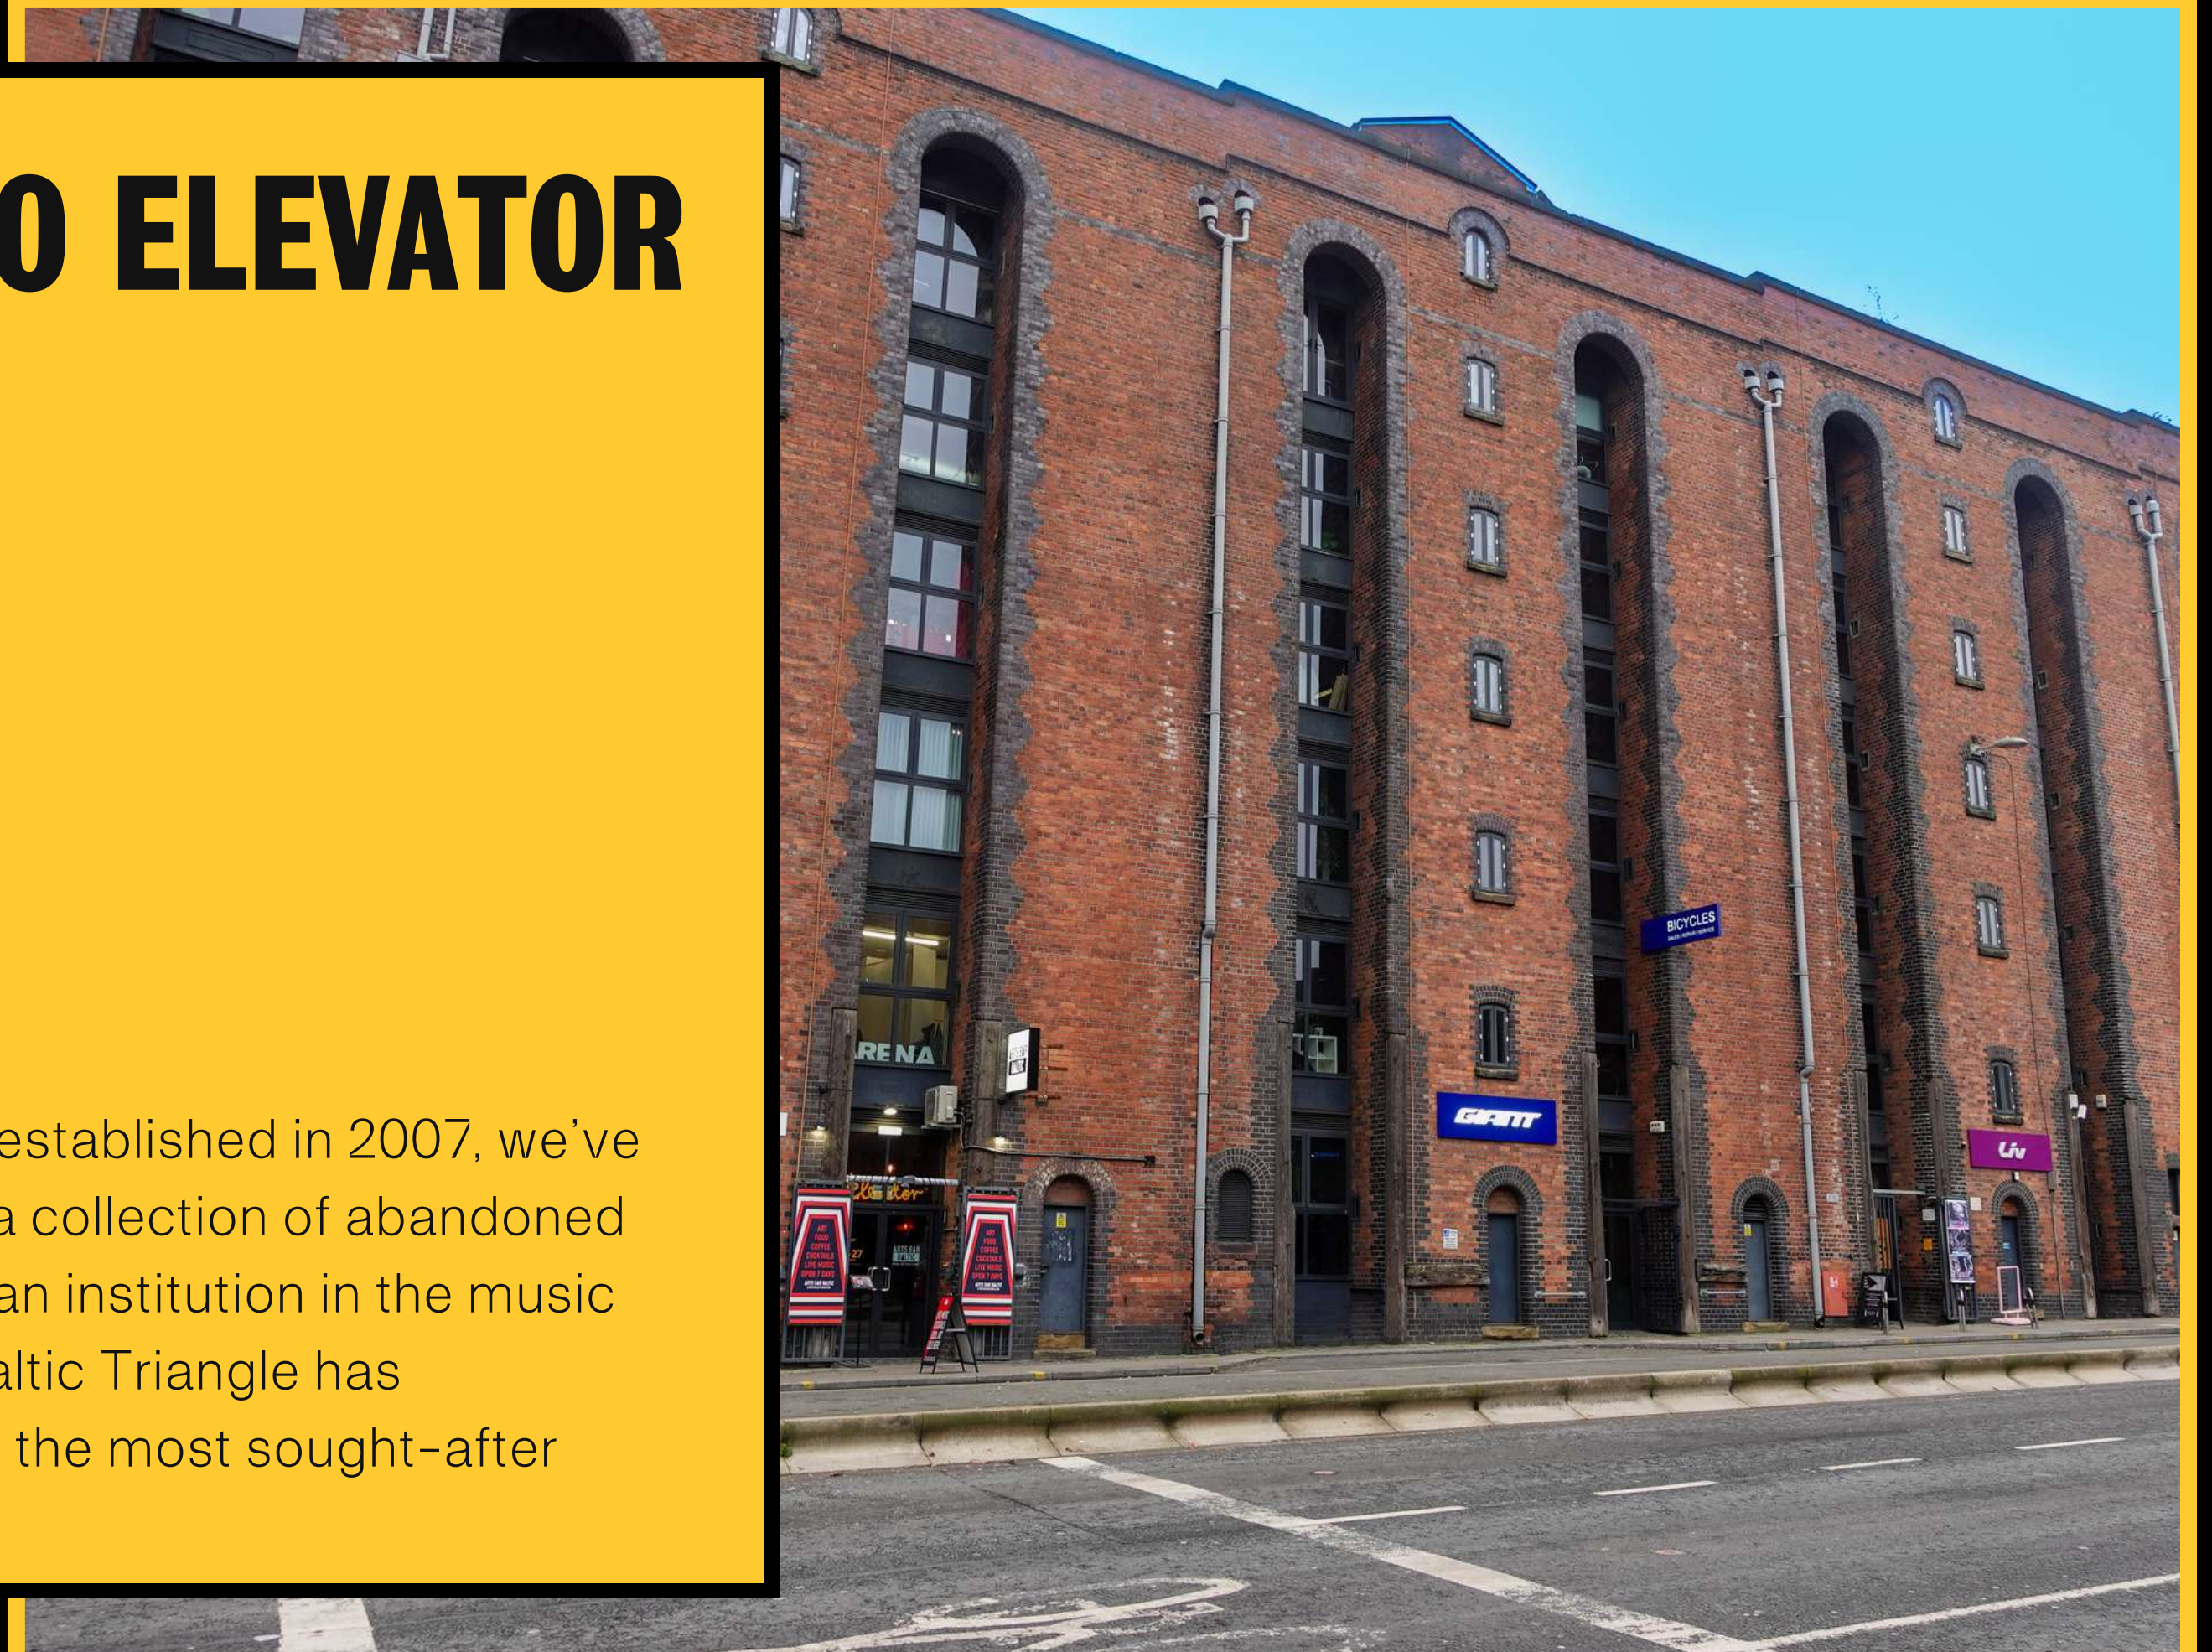

The Grade II listed buildings were one of the first buildings to form what is now Liverpool's creative hub in the Baltic Triangle area, offering 90,000 square feet of space for music production, art, technology, games companies and indie businesses.

MUSIC & TECH HUB

WELCOME TO ELEVATOR

Since Elevator Studios was established in 2007, we've grown from little more than a collection of abandoned and derelict warehouses to an institution in the music and tech ecosystem. The Baltic Triangle has transformed alongside us to the most sought-after location in Liverpool.

BALTIC TRIANGLE - LIVERPOOL'S CREATIVE QUARTER

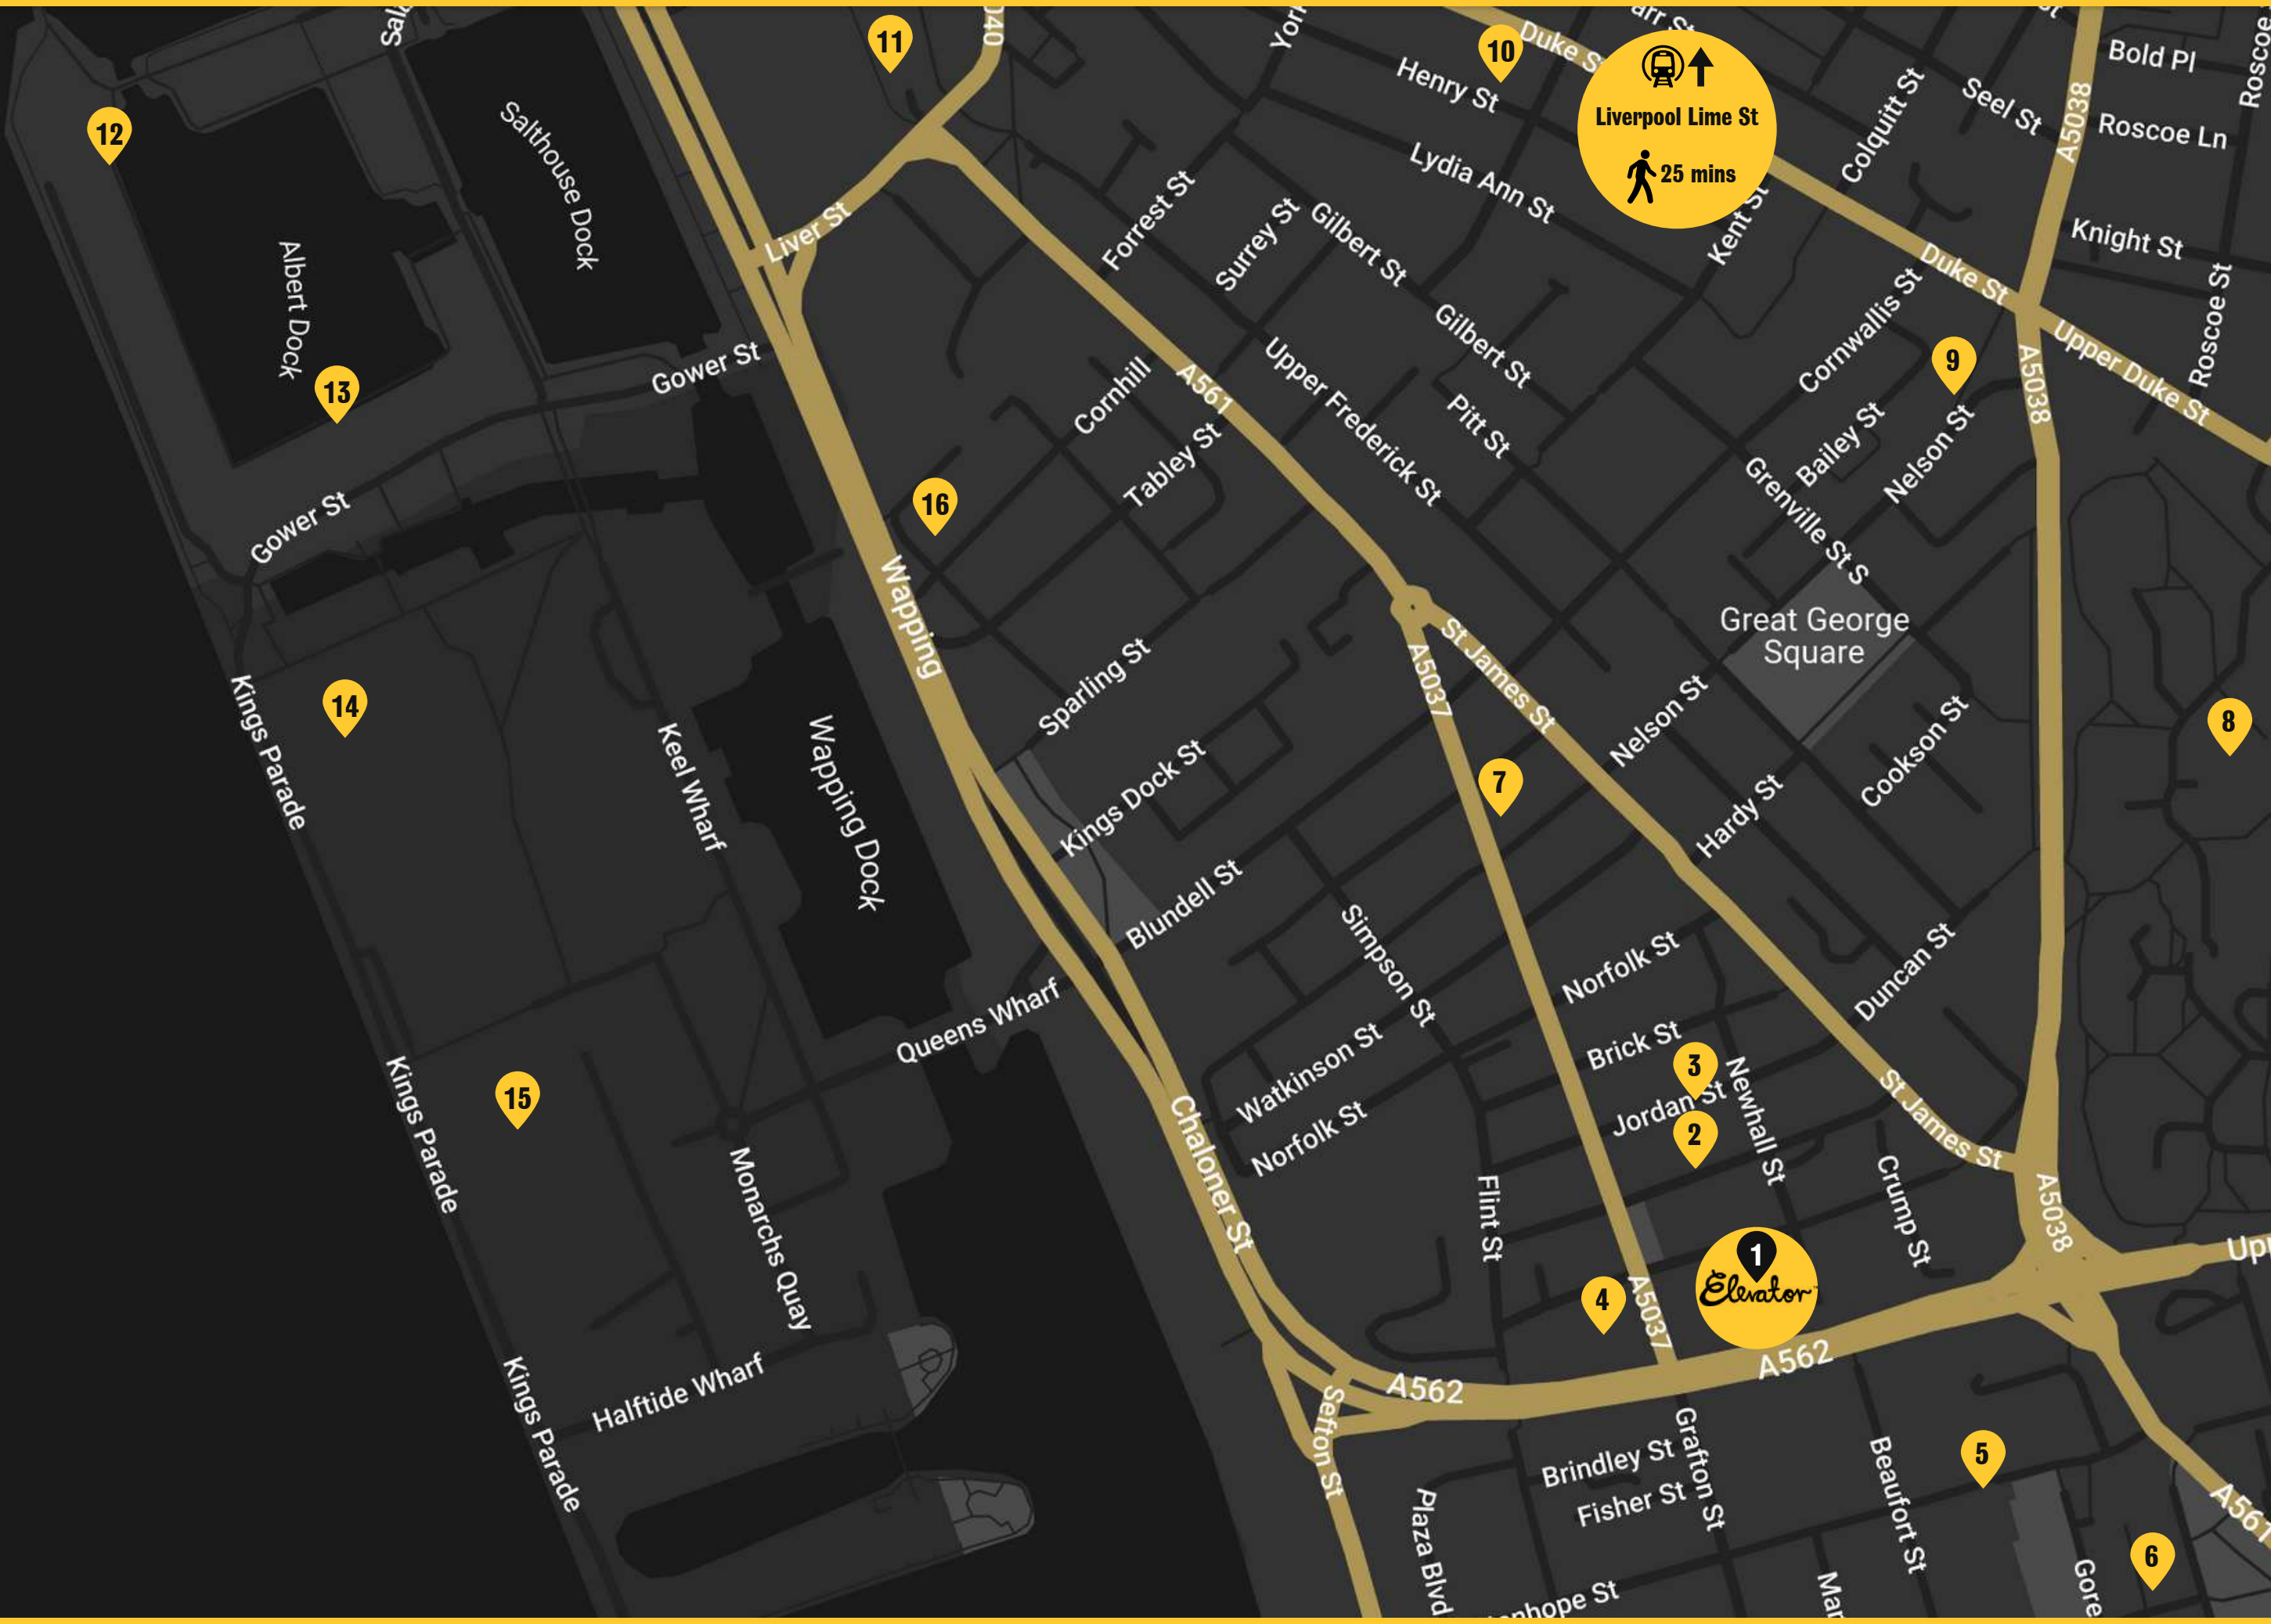

The Baltic Triangle is known as Liverpool's coolest area; home of creative, digital and independent businesses. With coffee shops, indie start-ups, a skate park, street artists and of course musicians, the area has become the best creative hangout in Liverpool.

BUILDING FEATURES

In the heart of the Baltic Triangle, Elevator provides an organic setting for creatives from diverse disciplines to network and collaborate. With strong community vibes, it's conveniently close to the city center. The building offers leased large spaces and licensed long-term studios, featuring historic charm with bare brick walls. An equipped Session Room is available for flexible bookings. Elevator isn't just a workspace; it's a hub for development and growth, allowing you to expand within the building.

OFFICE SPACE TENANTS

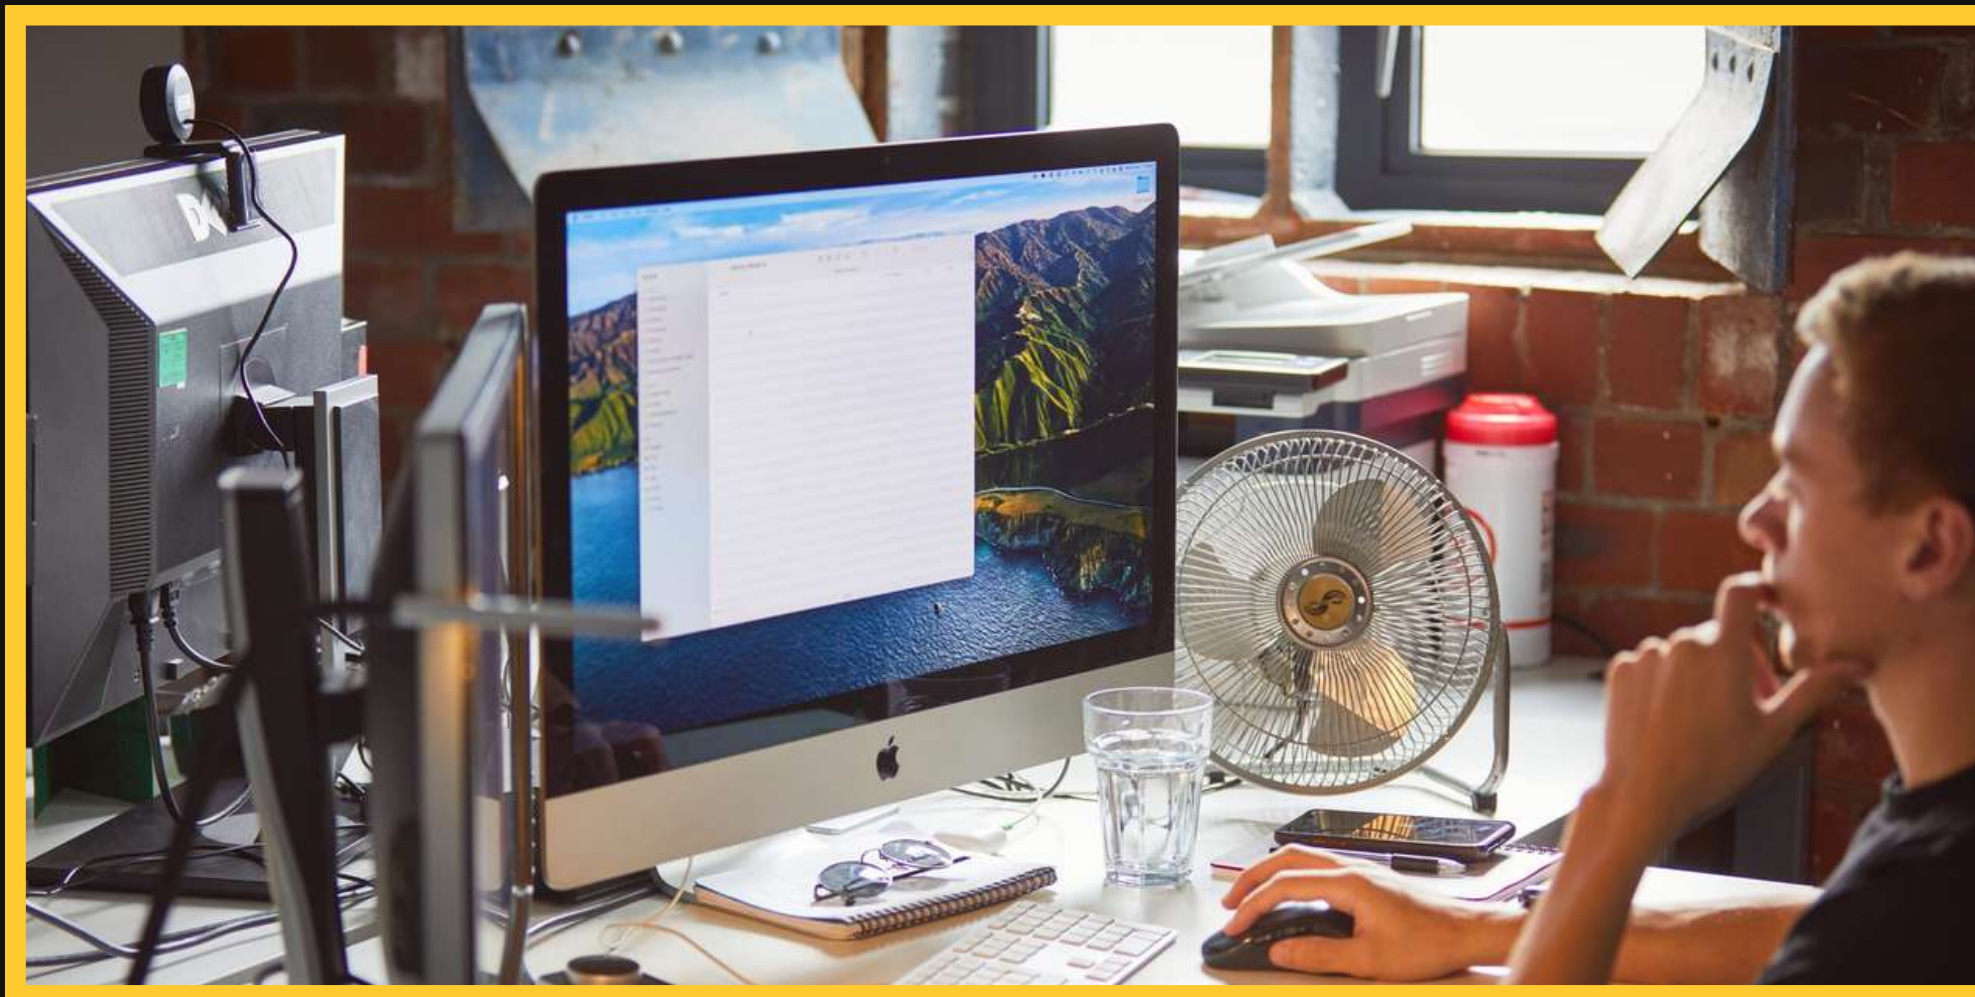

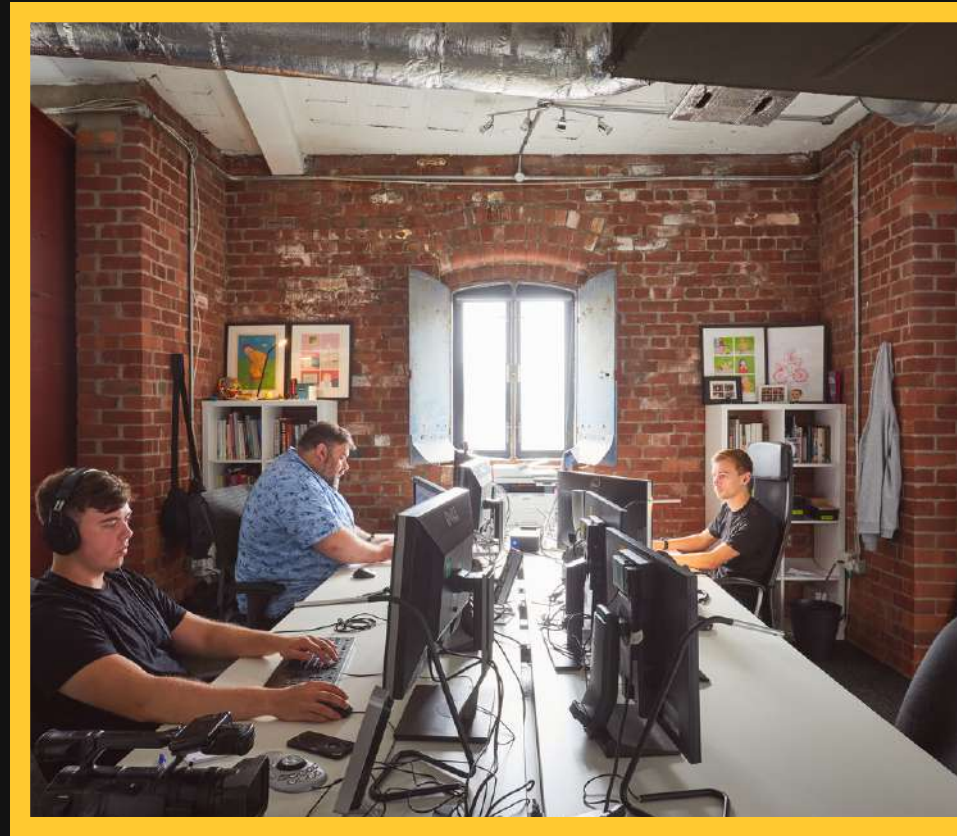

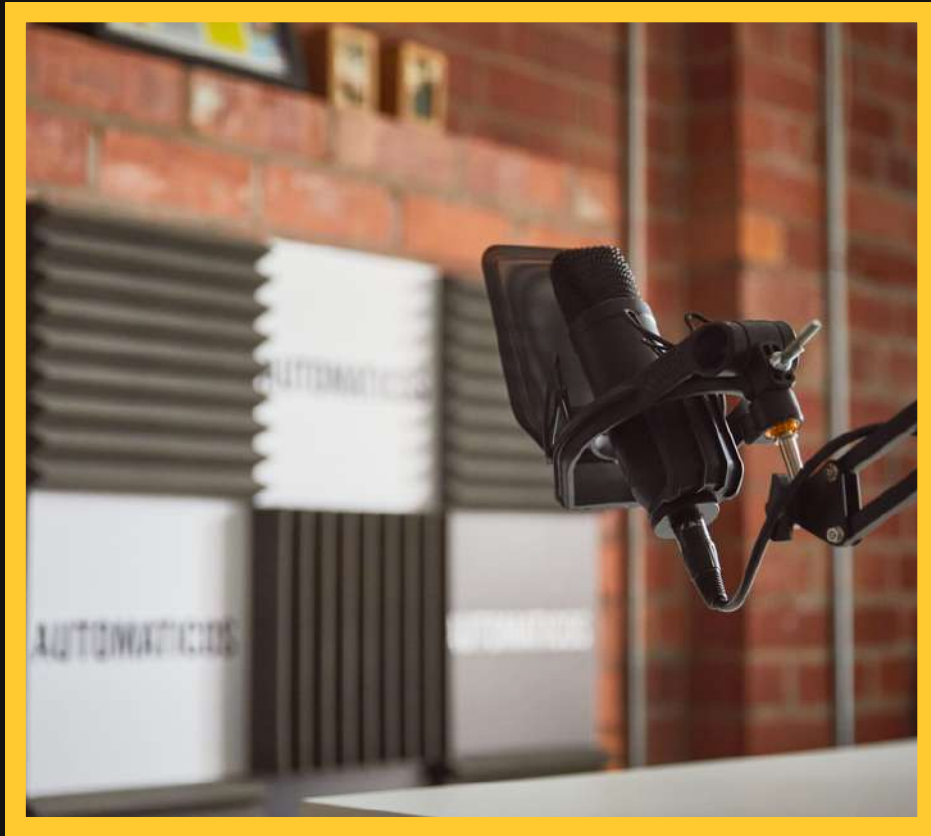

Some of the UK's most successful independent gaming companies, record labels and production companies have made Elevator Studios their long-term home, with our large office spaces allowing them to grow under our roof.

Collaboration is commonplace for our tenants, they make the most of the readily available network of experts, from website designers and developers to animation designers and virtual reality companies, podcast and voiceover studios to name a few of the tech companies within our building's ecosystem.

Additionally, we offer a competitive service charge, to keep costs as low as possible for our tenants.

CREATIVE STUDIO TENANTS

Available on a short-term let basis, our creative studios allow small independents, creatives and artisans a place to put down roots whilst their businesses and projects take shape. With 40 low-cost studios across our buildings, you'll find a melting pot of creatives from the bands recording with music producers, visual animation studios, software designers, fashion labels, podcasters and more.

With so many talented people under our roof, Elevator Studios is the ideal place to start or grow in the music and tech industries, with established companies across our buildings to collaborate and share experiences with.

COMMERCIAL TENANTS

Elevator also has a number of commercial units covering a host of uses from the hub of the building, The Arts Bar, offering the best of the Baltic Triangle's hospitality and events, to Giant bikes, where you can view their showroom of bikes. There are plenty of independent businesses too such as It's the Hair Studio, an all gendered hair salon, The Honey House, a beauty salon and Powher, a gym that specialises in women's strength.

TENANT TESTIMONIALS

“I have an artists studio in the heart of this very dynamic building. It's always buzzing - with creative activities of all kinds - and has a friendly casual vibe.”
