Location

Nestled in an idyllic setting, this apartment boasts a prime position with awe-inspiring vistas overlooking the magnificent Fistral Beach and Newquay Golf Course. Situated adjacent to the development is the protected Pentire headland, where you'll find The Lewinnick Lodge, a boutique hotel and eatery. Positioned between the splendor of Fistral Beach and the picturesque River Gannel Estuary, this locale is a sanctuary of natural beauty. At high tide, you can embark on a charming ferry ride from the historic Fern Pit Café, a family-run establishment since 1910, to explore the quaint village of Crantock while traversing golden sands.

Conveniently positioned, Newquay town offers an array of amenities, including shopping centers, schools, banks, and a vibrant array of bars and restaurants. Seamless connections to surrounding areas are provided by bus and rail services. Just 14 miles away, the city of Truro offers further cultural and commercial opportunities, while the charming fishing port of Padstow is a mere 16 miles distant.

Enhancing its accessibility, Newquay International Airport is a short seven-mile journey away, granting convenient access to a myriad of destinations and ensuring effortless travel. Whether you seek a day of leisure on the beach, a round of golf on a renowned course, or a delightful meal at a charming local eatery, this apartment offers an exceptional choice for those seeking an immersive experience amidst the enchanting landscape of North Cornwall.
