The Location

Esplanade Road is nestled on the southerly peninsula of Newquay, embracing the world-renowned Fistral Beach. Offering uninterrupted panoramic views of the beach, bay, surf, sand dunes, and the links golf course, residents can revel in these breathtaking vistas every day of the year. Adjacent to Esplanade Road lies the protected headland of Pentire, situated between Fistral Beach and the picturesque River Gannel Estuary. Here, you'll find the Lewinick Lodge, a boutique eatery and hotel perched in a spectacular location.

The River Gannel Estuary separates the charming village of Crantock from Newquay. At high tide, access to the sandy passage by foot becomes restricted, but there's the option of taking the ferry from the Fernpit Café, a cherished establishment that has been serving since 1910 under the same family ownership.

Newquay boasts a rich history, originating as a small pilchard fishing village known as Towan Blystra. Its evolution into a bustling tourism hub began with the introduction of the railway in 1874. Today, Newquay offers a range of amenities including shopping, schools, banks, and a vibrant selection of bars and restaurants. The town's historic working fishing harbor adds to its character, while its coastline is hailed as some of Europe's finest. Convenient transportation options include bus and rail services to surrounding areas, with Newquay Airport located approximately seven miles away.
