FAMILY HOME WITH SOUTH FACING GARDEN & OPEN VIEWS - A five bedroom Edwardian home with large outbuilding/garages with outline planning to convert to an annexe.

The house was built back to front in 1911 ensuring that maximum advantage was taken of the splendid views and the private garden. This charming house of style and character was used by the village doctors and sits in a large garden plot of approx. 0.3 acre.

The spacious accommodation offers a large entrance hall, cloakroom, lounge, dining room, study, breakfast room, kitchen, utility, five bedrooms and three bathrooms separate access to granny/teenage annexe).

The private sunny gardens have delightful countryside views with attractive trees, well stocked flower beds, a range of seating patios and a large lawn area previously used as a tennis court/croquet lawn.

(Also the property has recently been re-roofed with replacement purlins, re-built chimney stacks and rosemary tiles)

A sweeping driveway provides car standing spaces for several vehicles and leads to the large brick outbuilding/garages (outline planning to convert to an annexe - See Vendor).

The Location

Horsley Woodhouse is a great place to live. There is a friendly and helpful community feel to the village. Watch out for the free monthly 'Wudhus News' magazine and the Horsley Woodhouse village carnival every July! Horsley Woodhouse also has great facilities including an excellent medical centre and pharmacy, Co-Op local supermarket, café, fish and chip shop, two pubs, two churches, a convenience store, a dance studio and two recreation grounds. One mile up the road in Smalley there are thriving cricket and tennis clubs. There are beautiful country walks across the fields in all directions from the village, including across to the Denby Pottery Visitor Centre and the noted Horsley Lodge golf course. Also a well regarded primary school and pre-school located in the village.
