Nestled in the sought-after Six Streets area of Derby, this charming three-bedroom mid-terrace house on White Street offers a delightful blend of original character and modern living. Built in 1900, the property boasts a bay fronted design that enhances its appeal, making it a perfect family home or an excellent investment opportunity.

Spanning an impressive 1,133 square feet, the house features two spacious reception rooms, providing ample space for relaxation and entertaining. The dining kitchen is well-appointed, ideal for family meals and gatherings. The property retains much of its original charm, with period features that add to its unique character.

The three bedrooms are generously sized, offering comfortable accommodation for families or guests. The family bathroom is conveniently located, ensuring practicality for everyday living.

Outside, the private garden provides a tranquil retreat, perfect for enjoying the outdoors or hosting summer barbecues. The location off Kedleston Road places you within easy reach of local amenities, schools, and parks, making it an ideal spot for families and professionals alike.

The Location

The Six Streets area of Derby is a popular residential location in a convenient location just off Kedleston Road. Within walking distance are an excellent range of amenities including small supermarket, barbers, post office, coffee shop, a selection of pubs, a regular bus service into Derby City centre, easy access to Derby university and Markeaton and Darley Park. The property is also within close proximity to A38 and A52.
