Summary

This is an impressive and attractive, three bedroom (previously four bedroom), detached residence believed to date back to around the 1950s.

Offering much character and plenty of kerb appeal the property occupies a fabulous, private plot towards the end of Rectory Lane. The plot measures approximately one fifth of an acre and is set up from the road. The property is set back behind remote control gates and these lead to a driveway and integral garage. There is a pleasant lawned fore-garden with beautifully stocked borders. To the rear of the property is an even more impressive, well-established garden with gently sloping lawn, seating areas and an abundance of mature trees, plants and shrubs.

Internally, the property is double glazed and gas central heated with entrance hall, fitted guest cloakroom, spacious L-shaped lounge/dining room, breakfast kitchen and utility. The first floor landing leads to a principle bedroom (which was previously two bedrooms and could be converted back) with en-suite shower room off, two further bedrooms and a bathroom.
