Summary

A most impressive and very generous, three storey, four bedroom, late Victorian, semi-detached residence occupying a fabulous elevated position on popular Kedleston Road.

The property retains an abundance of original character and is a true feature residence with mostly sash windows, Minton floor, coved cornice, picture rails, deep skirting boards and archway. The property has gas central heating and accommodation comprising entrance hall with Minton floor and staircase down to useful, spacious cellar, two generous reception rooms and impressive breakfast kitchen with feature bay window. On the first floor a split-level, semi-galleried landing leads to three bedrooms, laundry room, bathroom and separate WC. The second floor comprises the principle suite comprising landing area, spacious bedroom area, walk-in dressing room and superbly appointed shower room.

The property is set up from Kedleston Road behind a mature fore-garden. To the rear of the property is a delightful rear garden which is extremely well-stocked and established. It features an extensive lawn, cobbled patio/terrace located just off the kitchen, borders containing a varied selection of plants, shrubs, trees, brick walling and a courtyard to the foot of the garden giving access to the cobbled tandem driveway (accessed off Highfield Road). There is also a very useful gardener's WC which is currently being installed by the vendor.
