AGENCIA INMOBILIARIA

Welcome to the enchanting island of Formentera, where this wonderful house stands in the heart of the island.

Strategically located in a central area, without dirt roads and not far from the main road, this ancient village finca offers a haven of peace not far from inhabited centers and the best beaches.

Between the picturesque tourist village of Espujol and the attractive village of San Fernando, this property is surrounded by breathtaking natural scenery.

The upper terrace offers a spectacular view of the sea and the sunsets that open up over the island of Es Vedra.

The lower part of the house is surrounded by terraces immersed in the beauty of maritime pines, offering a serene and relaxing environment.

This house is ideal for those who want to combine modern comfort with the beauty and tranquility of the island of Formentera.

A perfect place to create unforgettable memories and enjoy all that this extraordinary island has to offer.

The house consists of five bedrooms, four bathrooms, a beautiful and comfortable living room with a fireplace for the cooler seasons, a full kitchen, and a large garage.

It is spread over two floors: the ground floor part where we find the living room, kitchen, three bedrooms, and two bathrooms, while on the first floor there are two bedrooms with two en-suite bathrooms and this terrace with a wonderful view.
