

44 Stoke Valley Road Pennsylvania, Exeter, EX4 5EY

This impressive detached house offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a spacious family home nestling in a picturesque natural setting backing onto trees. Built, we understand in the mid 80's, this expansive property stands in a generous plot and features five bedrooms, making it ideal for families needing extra space and parking.

Upon entering, you will find spacious and versatile living accommodation, the utility room linking with the garage, store room and study/drying room offering interesting potential to create a self contained annex. The property also includes two bathrooms, ensuring convenience for all the family.

Pennsylvania is one of Exeter's most sought-after residential areas, known for its outstanding views of the surrounding countryside and community spirit which is highlighted by a community run convenience store/café close by. A regular bus service connects you to the city centre, while walking enthusiasts/dog owners will appreciate the secure private gate giving convenient access onto an adjoining bridle path linking to the scenic trails in Duryard Valley Park and Mincinglake Valley Park, both just a short stroll away. Duryard Valley plays host to a wide range of wildlife, deciduous woodland and wildflower meadows and comes with its own bridle path leading down to Exeter's university campus. The serenity of Stoke Woods is only a twenty minute walk away.
