Hidden behind an array of well-established hedge and planting this lovely home sits on a private plot. A charming garden path leads up to the front door that provides access into a porch and then into the welcoming entrance hall. To the rear of the property is the driveway with a detached garage offering an EV charging point. Further energy efficiency measures are found in the substantial loft insulation as well as the solar-panels on the roof. Internally the property flows seamlessly between a generous open-plan dining kitchen and the large living and dining rooms. Character charm is found with bay windows and fireplaces alongside contemporary style and modern touches such as the underfloor heating that warms the kitchen area. A downstairs WC provides a handy addition, whilst the layout of the upstairs bedrooms lends itself to growing families. There is a generous master bedroom that sits to the left of the landing boasting fitted wardrobes and a modern en-suite shower room with black crittall fittings and more underfloor heating. The three other bedrooms comprise of two further doubles and a large and stylish single. The family bathroom is the third space with underfloor heating and is boasts more modern fittings with a four piece suite to include bath, shower, wash hand basin and WC. The loft space provides additional storage and benefits a skylight allowing in natural light to the space.

Externally the garden boasts a south-westerly facing aspect with a generous patio area sitting off the double doors from the dining room and running across the rear of the property providing plenty of options for garden furniture. The garden wraps around the side of the property making the most of the corner plot. Enclosed by wooden fencing there is a gate at the top of the garden that provides handy access to the driveway and garage.
