SELLER INSIGHT

“ The Coach House has been a fantastic family house with plenty of room for family and friends to gather and have fun and celebrations. The manicured lawn has been used for family weddings and many summer dances over the years. The house is set in a fantastic position and is within walking distance to the town, the rear courtyard gives access directly on to the bridle path up the Sugar Loaf mountain and the Beacons. Now the family have all grown up and moved on, it is time for another family to enjoy it as much as we have done.

GROUND FLOOR

Enter through the porch leading to the delightful entrance hall with seating area, a door to the left leads to the drawing room, another to a cloakroom with W.C.. The main staircase rises from the entrance hall to the first floor landing. The drawing room offers ample space with attractive views over the splendid gardens and a fireplace with an oil fired Esse log burner style stove. From the entrance hall a door leads through to the dining room with ample space for a large table it's the perfect space for entertaining. From here a steps lead up to the spacious kitchen / breakfast room with door to the utility/boot room. The traditional kitchen features a red Aga as its focal point, quarry tiles and three sash windows overlooking the gardens, an external door and a door to a storage area with separate W.C. The main living room, approached by a passageway from the hall, is flooded with light with windows and doors to the front courtyard and rear patio. A wood burning stove and spiral iron staircase to the guest bedroom add character to this room which, with the bedroom and bathroom above could, potentially, be a separate annexe or guest suite.

PRINCIPAL BEDROOM

A spiral staircase from the living room leads up to the principal bedroom with spacious en-suite, this bedroom is a generous size and has two Velux windows affording plenty of light into the room.

FIRST FLOOR

Accessed from the main staircase are the other four bedrooms. Three double bedrooms and one single, all with built in wardrobes and generous bathroom with a seven foot roll-top bath. There is also a separate shower room accessed from the landing.

OUTSIDE

Accessed via a long private driveway, with shared access to Llwyn du Court and the Coach House only, the driveway leads to a turning circle which gives access to a substantial outbuilding containing a double garage and good sized workshop/storage area. There is ample parking including space for several vehicles in the courtyard to the front of the house.

The beautiful, private gardens of circa 0.88 acres have been carefully tended over the years and lie predominately to the rear and side of the house. Mainly laid to an extensive lawn with flower beds, mature shrubs and specimen trees. There is an extensive paved terrace running the full length of the house ideal for entertaining and outside dining. In addition there is a large brick paved secluded and sheltered patio to the rear accessed from the main living room.

SERVICED OFFICES

Adjoining the main living room but accessed separately by a door from the front courtyard are the original stables with an attractive clock tower. The two stables, complete with their original partitions and fittings have been converted to generous office space with ample storage space and an additional store room. The original Victorian Stables have been carefully preserved with the wrought iron stalls and cobbled floors still evident. The offices have a separate heating from the main Coach House. This area could, subject to any necessary planning consents, be used for further residential accommodation or hobby/workshop in addition to the offices.

LOCAL AREA

Llwyn Du is a small, sought after hamlet lying on the lower slopes of the Sugar Loaf Mountain on the outskirts of Abergavenny town, within a mile of the town centre. Abergavenny offers a wide range of amenities including both independent and chain shops, super markets, a cinema and theatre, doctors and dentist surgeries, banks and building societies, well renowned public houses and restaurants, the remains of an ancient Castle, walks along the banks of the River Usk or the Brecon and Monmouth Canal and good access to road and rail links. On the edge of the town is access to the A40/A449 and A465 which in turn link to the M4/M5 and M50 motorway network and the cities of Cardiff, Hereford and Bristol. A main line railway station is located on the southern edge of Abergavenny with trains to London Paddington (change at Newport for the connection).

Directions: Leave Abergavenny town centre on the A40 Brecon Road, shortly before the first roundabout and just after the Station Hotel and The Old Station Doctors surgery on the right take the right hand turning onto Chapel Road, continue to the end of Chapel Road (approx. 0.5 miles) and bear right into Pentre Road at the T junction. After a short distance you will reach another junction continue straight on for a few yards when the driveway to Llwyn Du Court will be found on the left through a pair of stone pillars. Follow the drive for about 0.3 miles and shortly after it bears sharply right the entrance to The Coach House will be found on the left.

Ben started his career in lettings before transferring over to property sales when he was asked to head up an office in Monmouthshire. As a business, we pride ourselves on the quality of our marketing, our attention to detail, passion for customer service and our experience not only to find a buyer for a property but to see the transaction through to completion. Estate Agency is a changing world, we are very forward thinking, embrace change and strive to be ahead of the curve. Being part of Fine & Country offers the best of both worlds – a global company with outstanding marketing and social media presence combined with intimate knowledge of the local area and a showroom situated in a prime location in Abergavenny. Outside of the business, my leisure time is spent running up a local mountain, in the gym or enjoying outdoor activities with my two young children.
