55 Meadows Walk
Whiddon Down, Devon EX20 2QL

£29,950 Leasehold

The Property

A very smart mobile home on this well managed leisure and holiday park. The mobile home is a Willerby Rio unit which is highly insulated and fully double glazed and centrally heated by propane gas. It is a very successful holiday rental and it is currently fully booked right through until the end of September 2024. Entry is directly into the bright and spacious kitchen and living area which has space for a four seater dining table with upholstered bench seating plus a further large corner sofa with a pull out additional double bed, a mock fireplace with an electric flame effect fire and large windows with a view to the hills of Dartmoor. The kitchen is well fitted with plenty of cupboards and a short corridor leads to the main bedroom with its fitted bedroom furniture and a private washroom/w.c., a twin bedroom and a shower room. The property has just under 9 years (expires 4th December 2032) left on the licence and generates a good income from holiday letting. Fowlers strongly recommend viewing.

Situation

55 Meadows Walk is located at the very edge of the Dartmoor View Holiday Park and it is elevated enough to enjoy views to Dartmoor. It sits in 20 acres of parkland with lawns, a wooded area, swimming pool, children's play park and a launderette. Dartmoor View is close to Dartmoor itself with access to the moor itself on foot about a mile away or just a few minutes drive by car. The North Cornish coast is just under an hour by car. Whiddon Down has a pub and fuel station with a small supermarket but nearby Okehampton has a wider range of facilities as does the ancient Stannary town of Chagford, both of which are about 5 miles away. Exeter is approximately 15 miles away.

Licence

The property retains the residue of the lease which expires on 4th December 2032.
