Far Reaching Views of The Welsh Hills and Dee Estuary - Bursting With Character and Charm - An Exciting Addition to The Rental Market

Only very occasionally, a house comes to the rental market that combines charm and character, with the practicalities of modern living as well as Rose Cottage does. Boasting lovely views of the River Dee, the Welsh hills, Rose Cottage tucked away on Mostyn Square ideally located for award winning pubs and restaurants, this residence is retreat from the hustle and bustle of modern life, yet remains within easy reach of local pubs, cafes and restaurants as well as highly renowned Parkgate ice cream shops.

The property has recently been decorated from top to bottom and new carpets laid in the hall and stairs.

In brief, the deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over three floors affords; to the ground floor, entrance hall, living room, open plan kitchen diner. To the first floor, there is the master bedroom and a recently renovated spacious bathroom. To the second floor, there is bedroom two with stunning views over The Welsh Hills.

The property has a pretty and private, low maintenance courtyard with a brick wall boundary, mature shrubs and flowers, gated access via both sides of the property.
