Property Description

Positioned in the sought after village of Newbold On Stour, this delightful three bedroom end of terrace home offers the perfect sanctuary for family life. Marrying timeless village charm with everyday comfort, the property is ready for its next chapter.

Set within a row of three, the house provides well balanced accommodation. At its heart lies a highly versatile and inviting reception room, ideal for both relaxed daily living and entertaining. The former garage has been thoughtfully converted into a dining room, while a downstairs toilet created from a clever cupboard conversion, adds extra convenience.

Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms and a neatly arranged bathroom ensure practical family living. Outside, the property enjoys a rear garden and a welcoming front lawn, complemented by a driveway.

Owned by the current vendor since 1995 and believed to have been built in the 1970s, the home retains its original character, with only modest alterations made over the years.
