Laundry Cottage , Boltby Thirsk YO7 2DY

Laundry Cottage enjoys an idyllic setting within the sought-after village of Boltby, a designated Conservation Area in the Hambleton Hills within the western boundary of the North York Moors National Park. This unique, pretty cottage incorporates a former Methodist Chapel, dating back to circa 1862. The property boasts four bedrooms and two reception rooms. The property offers the option of a multi generational family home with the benefit of a self contained studio/annexe although the owners currently use it as a hugely popular summer holiday cottage, having a 97% occupancy rate over the last three years. It has exceptional opportunity for a family or someone to continue running it as a business. The property also benefits from separate outbuildings, a workshop and a garden room/office which overlooks the beautiful enclosed garden to the rear.

LOCATION

Boltby sits approximately six miles to the north east of Thirsk, near the Hambleton Hills and on the edge of the North York Moors. The location provides easy access to walking routes and bridleways and enjoyment of the area's natural beauty. Road links to the east via the A170 access the North York Moors and the coast, York to the south or Middlesbrough to the north are reached via the A19 and links to further afield via the A168/A1. The towns of Thirsk and Northallerton provide access to rail links.

DIRECTIONS

Leaving Thirsk via Millgate proceed onto St James Green and take the right hand turn onto Long Street. At the roundabout take the left hand turn onto the A170 and continue on until you reach the turning on the left hand side to Boltby. Continue along the road, through the village of Felixkirk until you reach Boltby. After you have passed the church that is on your left, Laundry Cottage will be on the right hand side adjacent to the packhorse bridge.
