Moments away from Hampstead Heath is this recently remodelled, four/five bedroom Victorian House. Finished to the highest standard, this family home gives off a real wow factor. The refurbishment has been carried out with exceptional care, considered design and impressive attention to detail.

The ground floor has lovely wood flooring with underfloor heating and impressive ceiling height with period features including two working fireplaces. At the rear there is a 27' kitchen/dining room with sliding doors that look out onto a beautiful private patio garden.

The stunning bespoke kitchen has been fitted with Smeg appliances designed by Italian design house Snaihero in collaboration with Milanese architect Iosa Ghini. There is a guest wc and the upper floors have four/five bedrooms and two bathrooms.

Lisburne Road is a picturesque residential street moments away from the green open spaces of Hampstead Heath, great local shops, cafes, restaurants and pubs. The overground and Belsize Park Tube (Northern Line) are also easily accessible.
