St. Michaels Terrace, N6

Forming part of this exquisite red brick Victorian terrace in the very heart of Highgate Village, an exceptionally well presented and restored family home of remarkable quality.

Approached through a welcoming entrance hallway there is a double reception room with parquet flooring and a log burning stove leading to the dining area along with a sleek modern "Roundhouse" kitchen with a glazed curtain wall leading to the garden.

The upper floors have four bedrooms along with two "Drummonds" fitted bathrooms in a period style one with a roll top bath, shower and utility area and one with a large shower and twin marble vanity unit.

This fine home has thoughtful fitted storage areas, additional loft storage and a small cellar area.

Perfectly positioned, moments from the High Street, Pond Square and Waterlow Park, there is easy access to Hampstead Heath and the local schools.
