A spacious garden apartment converted from a substantial Victorian home providing a private street entrance, large terrace, lawned garden and secure parking.

Architecturally re-modelled providing large open entertainment areas and a kitchen breakfast room overlooking the delightful gardens, the flexible accommodation extends to over 1650 sq ft.

There are three bedrooms, a study, shower room, family bathroom and a useful utility area along with good storage including a small cellar and external storage shed.

The garden is well laid out with a large terrace for al fresco dining, a generous lawn ideal for children, a secret lower area, separate sauna and direct access to parking.

Perfectly placed between the village, Highgate underground and the woodland/parks, there is easy access to a number of local and highly rated schools.
