North Hill, N6

A handsome Victorian double fronted family size home, built in the Georgian style and affording exceptionally versatile accommodation including a number of period features, roof terraces and garden areas.

There is a spacious entrance hallway with guest wc and access to the main reception room, study and kitchen breakfast room with a detailed staircase leading to the upper floors.

On the mezzanine landing there is a delightful room with Parquet flooring which is currently used as a study and has direct access to the first floor terrace.

Externally the house is approached via a secluded front garden with side access and has a large patio area, further garden area, a terrace and balcony.

Positioned mid-way along North Hill and therefore convenient to a number of local schools, Highgate High Street, local woodland and Kenwood, Highgate tube is 0.5 mile away.
