West Hill Park, N6

A spectacular split level Ted Levy designed house, flooded with light, in a sought after award winning development with direct views overlooking Hampstead Heath.

Originally arranged as a three bedroom house, the property has been interior designed to a high standard with exceptional entertaining spaces over mezzanine levels.

The modern and sleek lines compliment the kitchen which is free flowing to the dining area with a comfortable reception room leading to the patio garden and a south facing balcony to the study.

On the upper floors there are two bedrooms with a sumptuous master suite with dressing area and bathroom and en suite shower to the second bedroom.

West Hill Park is located between Highgate Village and the boutique shopping and café society at Swains Lane and is just a short walk to the heath and Highgate ponds.
