Kingswear Road, NW5

On the left is the first bedroom, currently being used as a study, providing ample storage space. Behind this bedroom is a store cupboard, offering further storage space, and there is another double bedroom to the rear of the property, along with a well-presented family bathroom.

Down the carpeted hallway is the large reception room, which faces the front of the property, providing maximum light. The separate kitchen is the other side of the hallway, backing on to the patio, with steps to the large, private garden.

At the end of the hallway are two further double bedrooms, both with cornicing, and one with panelling across the ceiling.
