A generously proportioned Victorian family home arranged over four floors, offering over 1,800 sq ft of thoughtfully designed living space.

Upon entry, you're welcomed by an elegant front reception room, featuring wooden flooring and a large bay window that floods the space with natural light. A separate dining room to the rear connects effortlessly to a well-appointed kitchen, which opens directly onto a large and secluded rear garden, ideal for family living and entertaining.

The first floor has two bright and spacious bedrooms. The rear-facing room is a well-sized double bedroom, while the larger front bedroom, bathed in light from twin sash windows, would make an ideal principal suite.

The top floor offers two further generously sized rooms, perfect for use as additional bedrooms, a home office, or an informal reception area, depending on your needs.

Hargrave Road is located close to both Archway and Tufnell Park underground stations. There is an excellent range of independent retailers on both Junction Road and Fortress Road, and Hampstead Heath is within a mile.
