Lady Somerset Road, NW5

This stunningly extended Victorian home blends historic character with modern innovation, featuring bespoke interiors, smart technology and elegant design, all finished to the highest possible standard throughout.

The ground floor showcases a beautifully designed open plan living space, with skylights that flood the area with natural light. A bespoke kitchen, with porcelain worktops and high spec Gaggenau appliances adds a luxurious touch. Period charm is retained with 18th-century marble fireplaces, bringing a sense of timeless character. The house is finished with smoked and oiled French oak flooring and benefits from underfloor heating throughout.

Upstairs, you'll find two generously sized double bedrooms and a luxurious bathroom. Ascending to the second floor, there are two additional spacious rooms, accompanied by another bathroom. On the top floor, the stunning full width sliding Sky-Frame windows offers breathtaking views over the expansive garden. The garden is planted with soft fruit and mature trees, offering a tranquil retreat which balances timeless character with contemporary living.

Lady Somerset Road is a quiet residential street, close to excellent transport links, top rated schools and green spaces like Hampstead Heath, offering a sense of community and a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere.
