Tytherton Road, N19

As you enter, the ground floor features a spacious double reception room with high ceilings, a bay window and original fireplaces, creating a warm and inviting space, ideal for both entertaining and relaxing. To the rear is a large galley kitchen and a separate dining area which leads directly to a private garden. There's also scope to extend to the side (subject to planning permission), and the home benefits from a convenient side entrance, perfect for bikes or buggies.

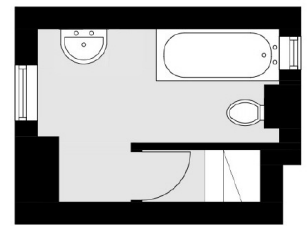

Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms and two generous family bathrooms. A large attic space above provides excellent storage or potential for future conversion (STPP). Full of charm and character throughout, this much loved home is set on a quiet residential street, just moments from local parks, excellent transport links, and within the catchment area for the highly regarded Yerbury School, making it an ideal choice for families looking to settle in this vibrant part of North London.
