Dartmouth Park Hill, London, N19

An outstanding four bedroom family home forming part of this impressive converted church. This property is bursting with character, has a lovely private garden and two bathrooms.

The ground floor features a reception room with ample storage and a stunning study with stripped timber flooring and a stained glass window. Both rooms are connected to a separate vaulted dining room with two ornate stone columns and exposed brickwork.

Outside, accessible from the reception room, there is a tiered patio with a lower seating area and a raised decked area.

This fine home has been finished to an exacting standard with quality fixtures and fittings throughout which tastefully complement its Gothic charm.

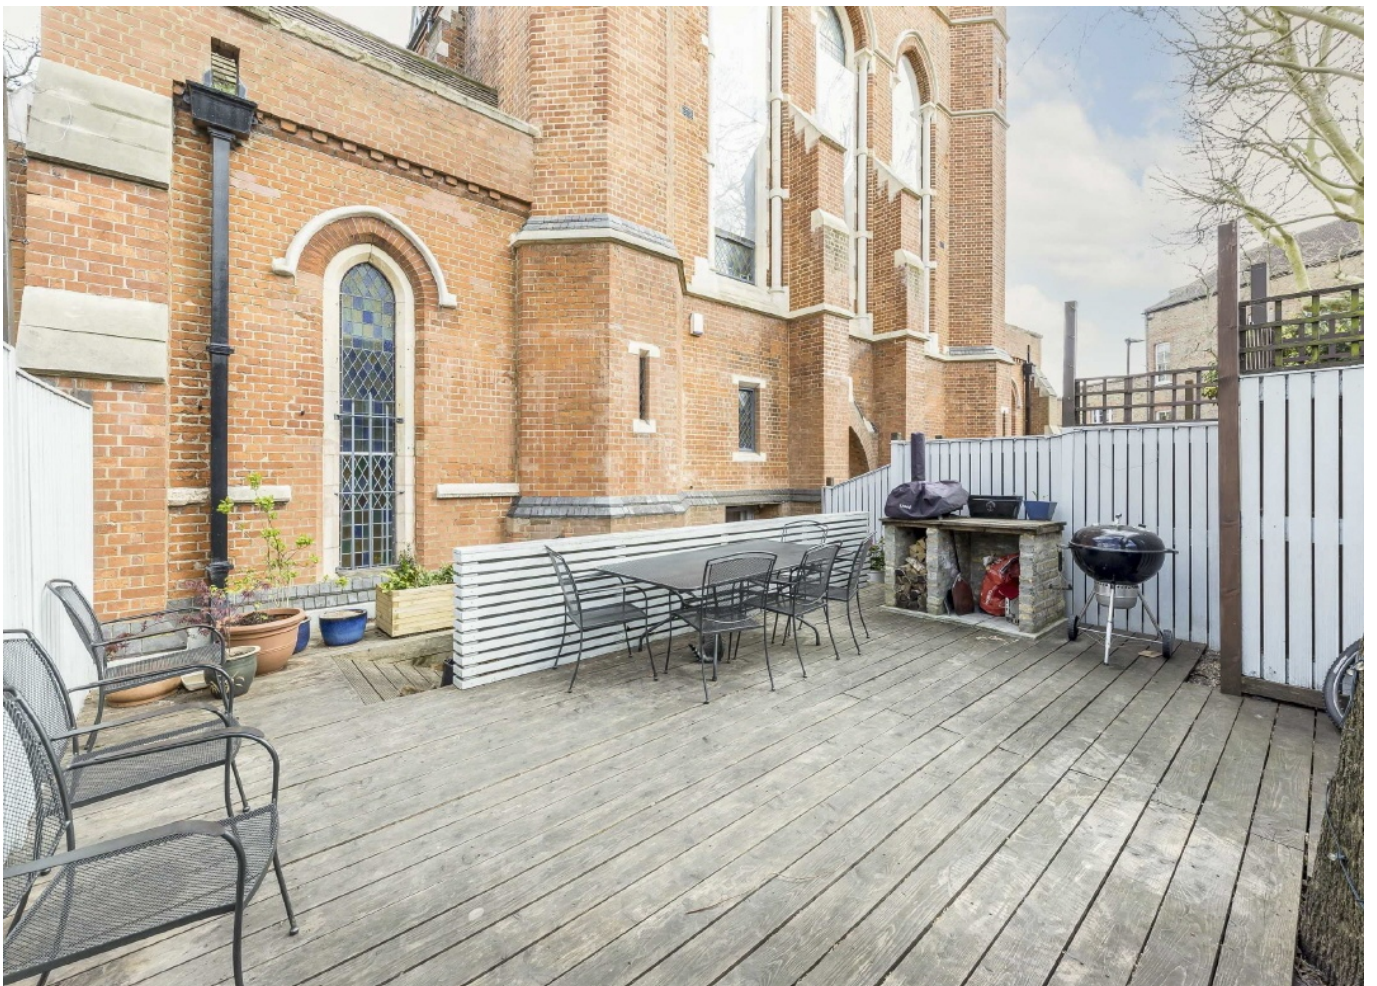

On the upper slopes of Dartmouth Park, the property is close to Hampstead Heath and the shops and restaurants along both Fortess Road and Highgate High Street.
