With stunning views of open countryside from multiple rooms, Burnmoor offers a tranquil living experience. Austwick's village amenities, including shops, a pub and restaurant, a primary school, and public transport, make it an ideal choice for families and professionals alike.

Location

Austwick is a highly sought after village on the western edge of the Yorkshire Dales National Park. With a good primary school, pub and village store, this attractive village is surrounded by stunning countryside with a huge choice of walking routes. Notable features of the local landscape include include Norber Erratics and Ingleborough - one of the Yorkshire 3 Peaks.

The A65 provides easy access to the nearby market town of Settle, where a good range of shops, pubs and places to eat are available. The town has a Booths supermarket, train station on the famous Settle to Carlisle line - with connections to Leeds - and excellent secondary education at Settle College.

As well as the Dales, the Lake District and Forest of Bowland are also within easy reach for great days out in spectacular scenery.
