Description

This is an amazing lifestyle opportunity to run a rural village centre Community status Post Office, village store and tearooms located in the picturesque village of Henllan, three miles from the old market town of Denbigh. The business caters for the village and local community, passing traffic and an increasing number of tourists staying in the locality. This multi-faceted business opportunity includes a fully equipped and operating commercial kitchen, a tearoom with 14 internal and 6 exterior covers with scope for expansion, large, 3 bedroomed living accommodation, secluded walled garden, large private gated carpark, external shed/studio and other outbuildings. The business has a healthy turnover of £307,899 with a profit margin of 37%. (2023) Stocks not included in the price. The business is offered due to the vendor's relocation.

The Post Office

Henllan Post Office has the coveted Community status and Post Office income which has steadily increased year on year. This is based upon the Community grant, postal sales, banking, National Lottery and Health Lottery commission, PlayStation and PayZone sales, and will further increase with the new extension of working with Amazon. The Post Office area comprises one work counter, a secure room with PO alarm system (including two separately located distress alarms) and safe. All I.T. apparatus operated in the Post Office area are owned and maintained by the Post Office and this includes a dedicated Post Office telephone line, primarily for use with PlayStation.
