SUMMARY

Located in the heart of Trefnant, this stone-built cottage, dating back to 1850, offers beautifully presented accommodation brimming with character and charm. Immaculately maintained and tastefully decorated throughout, the property provides a cosy yet stylish retreat ideal for modern living.

The home features a welcoming reception room, a spacious double bedroom, a contemporary bathroom, and a modern, well-appointed kitchen — all thoughtfully designed to blend classic charm with modern comfort.

To the rear, you'll find a delightful cottage-style garden with mature borders and a sunny, south-facing patio — the perfect spot for relaxing or entertaining in peaceful surroundings.

Situated in a prime village centre location, the property enjoys immediate access to local amenities, shops, and attractions. While there is no off-street parking, ample free on-street parking is conveniently available nearby. Excellent public transport links are just steps away, with regular services every 20 minutes, making this a wonderfully connected and desirable home.

Location

Nestled in the heart of the beautiful Vale of Clwyd, Trefnant is a charming village offering excellent connectivity. This sought-after location lies just a short drive from the A55 Expressway, providing fast and convenient access to the North Wales coast, Chester, and beyond—ideal for commuters.

The village itself boasts a friendly community atmosphere with essential amenities including a local shop, post office, pub, and a welcoming village hall hosting regular events. For families, Trefnant is home to a well-regarded primary school, while secondary schools and further educational facilities are easily accessible in nearby Denbigh and St Asaph.

Surrounded by picturesque countryside and only a short distance from both market towns and coastal attractions, Trefnant offers an exceptional lifestyle balance—peaceful village living with everything you need close at hand.
