For Sale By Modern Method Of Auction Freehold Starting Bid £600,000

For sale by Modern Method of Auction; Starting Bid Price £600,000 plus reservation fee. Subject to an undisclosed reserve price.

A substantial grade II listed period home which can provide spacious and versatile living accommodation over three floors and a further detached dwelling behind.

The accommodation briefly comprises to the ground floor of the main entrance hall, inner hallway with w.c., sitting room, living room, lounge/diner with office off, further hallway leading to the kitchen, former bathroom and utility with a further hallway with stairs down to the cellar, stairs to the first floor and access to a further reception room. Stairs to the first floor lead to six bedrooms and bathroom. A further staircase leads to the loft room which could be used for a variety of purposes (please note: part of the roof has collapsed due to a fire). Outside, the property enjoys gardens to the front and side (please note: there is right of vehicular and pedestrian access leading to Blackgates Miniature Railway at the rear). In addition to the rear of Freedom house there is a further detached dwelling offering further potential to create accommodation, subject to planning and consent.

Situated in the sought after location of Tingley and formerly part of Blackgates Farm, the property is well placed to local amenities including shops and schools with local bus routes nearby. The motorway network is only a short drive away, perfect for those looking to travel further afield.

Offered for sale with no chain and vacant possession, there is huge potential to develop Freedom House and the detached dwelling further, subject to planning.

This property is for sale by West Yorkshire Property Auction powered by iamsold Ltd.
