A high specification development of just eight spacious apartments in this landmark Grade II listed building in an enviable city location with ample parking and expansive gardens.

The lower ground floor presents two, two bedroom apartments, each with two bathrooms and having direct access to the terraced sitting area taking full advantage of the views the west-facing communal gardens.

The ground floor has a welcoming communal reception hall and two, two bedroom period style spacious apartments, again each having two bathrooms. A third two bedroom apartment has its own private entrance and is being finished in a more contemporary style.

The first floor presents two, one bedroom apartments plus a large three bedroom property with a fantastic west-facing balcony.

These stylish homes are being finished to a high standard and offered with the option of being furnished by in-house interior designers.

The property occupies a commanding position on the junction of Balne Lane and Sandy Walk, on a large plot extending to a total of 1,750 square metres [0.4 acres] with gently sloping, mainly lawned gardens enjoying a pleasant westerly aspect with mature specimen trees. The property also benefits from ample parking spaces and is within very easy reach of the broad range of shopping, entertainment and recreational facilities offers by Wakefield city centre. The main Westgate Railway Station is within brief walking distance and the national motorway network is readily accessible.
