Location

This ever-popular area of the city centre offers an array of independent restaurants, bars and boutiques, alongside workspaces, studios and residential accommodation, creating a truly integrated community.

Jacksons Warehouse sits on the edge of the Northern Quarter and Piccadilly Basin, within a network of small streets that boast some of the most popular cafes and bars in Manchester, including Takk, Idle Hands, La Collina, Northern Monk and Feel Good Club.

Manchester Piccadilly Train Station and Metrolink are just a short stroll from the building. Both Piccadilly Gardens and Market Street Metrolink Stations are within a 10-minute walk.

Workspace

Jackson's Warehouse, originally called the Rochdale Canal Warehouse, was built in 1836 and subsequently listed as a Grade II building in 1974.

In 2003, the building was the subject of a £4.25m restoration project to provide residential accommodation and a self-contained commercial space at ground floor level.
