Harper & Stone are delighted to present to the open market a fantastic development opportunity in the desirable locale of Tethyknowe in Blairingone, situated just outside of Dollar. Currently, a house is situated on the plot with potential to be developed, or alternatively to be demolished and a new property erected. Architects drawings are included within these particulars to give vision to the new build concept.

The plot itself extends to 6,322m² / 1.56 acres, and the current property is situated within mature gardens, planted with various shrubs and bordered by a trees, creating a high degree of privacy.

The plans laid out show an 'L'-shaped 5-bedroom detached modern build, with an open plan living/kitchen/dining area on the ground floor. A boot room and a utility room are conveniently positioned off the kitchen. The separate snug creates a cosy separate room to relax in, and there is also a games room/cinema room. The Master Bedroom provides a walk-in dressing room and en suite with separate WC compartment. Sliding doors open directly onto a private terrace and into the tranquil garden area. The remaining 3 bedrooms will also benefit from en suite facilities, one of which also has a dressing room. Completing the ground floor is the family bathroom.

The terrace and garden area to the rear can be accessed directly from the living space and the hallway.

The first floor is not short on modern commodities, home to the Guest Suite, with beautiful views from its elevated position and with an en suite and dressing room. Further amenities on the first floor include a home gym, sauna and steam room, office and a WC. The first floor terrace is accessed via sliding doors from the gym.

Finally, externally there is a driveway which can accommodate multiple vehicles as well as a double garage.
