LOCATION

Aztec West is one of Bristol's most successful business parks and is located on the city's northern fringe immediately off Junction 16 of the M5 motorway, close to the interchange with the M4. 2540 Aztec West has a prominent position at the front of the park.

Aztec West has more facilities available to occupiers than any other business park in the region.

Parkway railway station is a short drive away and will shortly be directly connected by the city's new rapid transit scheme, MetroBus.

The Aztec Centre is situated nearby and provides excellent amenities including a sandwich shop and newsagent. The 4 Star Aztec Hotel & Spa is positioned at the entrance to Aztec West which provides a restaurant, bar, gym and swimming pool. There is a Starbucks 5 minutes walk away.

The Mall shopping and entertainment complex is conveniently located close by at Cribbs Causeway.

COMMUNICATION

Neighbours - This area of North Bristol contains a cluster of major employers and institutions within aerospace, defence, telecoms and financial services. University of the West of England has its main campus close-by as is MOD's procurement centre at Abbeywood.

Road - The building is 2 minutes drive from the M4/M5 interchange. The location attracts staff from a wide catchment area and is easily accessible for clients.

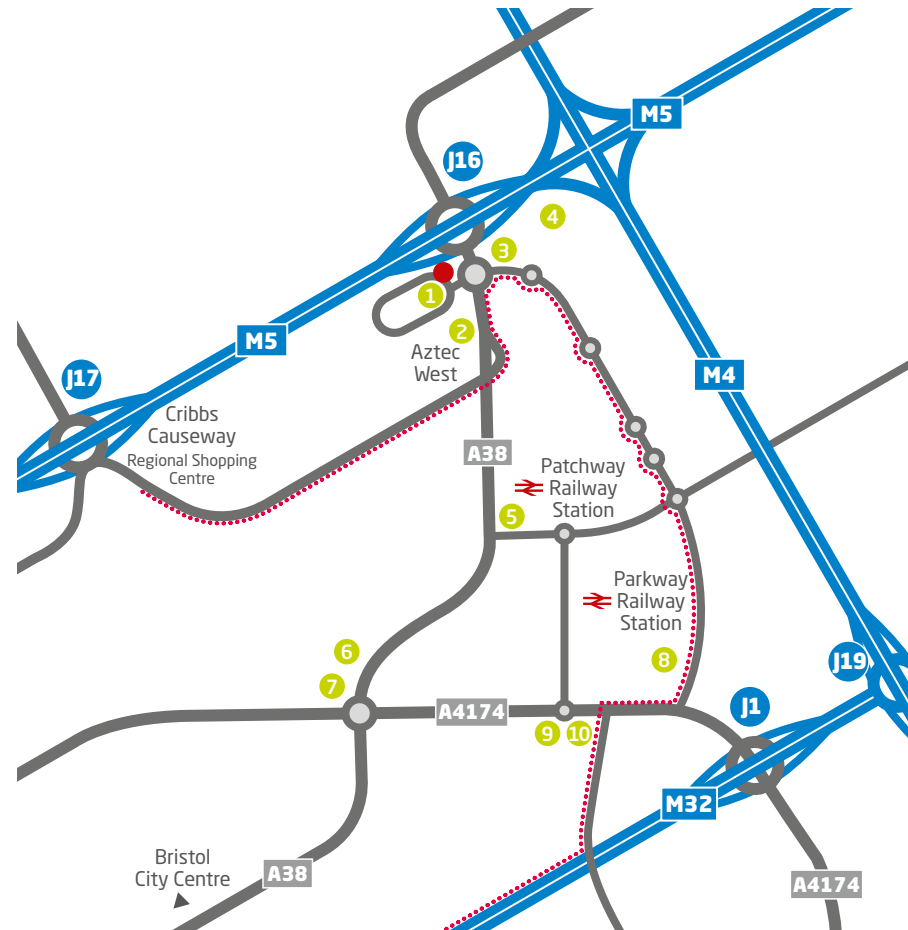

Rail - Parkway Railway Station is only 3 miles away. It is 79 minutes to London Paddington which, post electrification will reduce to 65 minutes - with 4 services an hour. There are regular direct services to Cardiff, Exeter and Birmingham.

MetroBus - This is Bristol's new rapid transit system costing £200m and due to open in 2018. Aztec West will have services every 10 minutes to Parkway Station and Cribbs Causeway. The line also offers fast and efficient services to Bristol city centre.

Bus - The building is 2 minutes walk from the A38 which is a major bus route.

Air - Bristol Airport is a 30 minute drive away.

Bike - Bristol has an extensive cycle network and the building offers cyclists secure storage and a shower.
