To the front of the property is a useful entrance porch where you can kick off your shoes before entering the open plan living space to the ground floor.

The modern spacious kitchen is fully fitted with integrated appliances including a fridge, freezer, double oven, gas hob, dishwasher and washing machine. French doors open out to the low maintenance private rear garden which includes a useful brick outbuilding.

To the first floor there is a modern fitted family bathroom which includes a white suite with a bath with a shower over. There is a double bedroom to the rear, and a small double bedroom/office to the front aspect which has a charming feature fireplace.

The second floor is home to the converted attic which is currently being used as the master bedroom* with feature character beams and a Velux style window.

This home is perfectly placed to take advantage of village facilities including the highly regarded All Saints Primary school which feeds into the John Taylor High school in Barton-Under-Needwood, this truly represents an excellent opportunity.

Alrewas village boasts a good range of local shops including hairdressers, take-aways, choice of pubs and restaurants, and is well placed for the A38 with links to Lichfield, Burton upon Trent, Tamworth and the M5.
