Step inside this impressive four-bedroom semi-detached family home in Norton, Worcester, designed with both comfort and style in mind. Blending contemporary finishes with thoughtful touches, this property offers generous living spaces, luxurious bathrooms, and beautifully landscaped outdoor areas.

At the heart of the home, the open-plan living space is perfect for family life and entertaining. A striking vaulted ceiling with bi-fold doors floods the room with light, while the feature log burner adds warmth and character. The stunning shaker kitchen, complete with granite worktops, central island unit, and quality appliances, creates a stylish yet practical hub of the home.

The property boasts a choice of reception rooms, including a separate formal lounge for more private gatherings. For those seeking relaxation, the home features a fully plumbed therapy room, also offering the ideal space for an office or additional family room.

The sleeping accommodation is equally impressive. The extended master suite enjoys a large en-suite bathroom with a freestanding bath, providing the ultimate retreat. A further updated family shower room adds convenience, while all bedrooms are spacious and well-presented.

Externally, the property is equally appealing, with a landscaped wraparound garden and sun deck ideal for outdoor living. A large driveway with parking for up to four cars ensures practicality, while a separate utility room with direct garden access adds everyday convenience.

Location highlights make this home even more desirable: it is close to Norton Community Hall and St Peter's Garden Centre, with easy access to the M5 and Worcester Parkway Railway Station for commuters.

This home combines modern luxury with versatile living spaces and an unbeatable location, creating the perfect setting for family life.
