STEP INSIDE

Logan Court

Set within the picturesque and well-maintained grounds of the highly desirable Napsbury Park development, this charming ground-floor apartment offers a blend of period character and modern convenience. Converted in 2004, it benefits from direct access to the communal gardens and comes with allocated off-street parking.

Inside, you'll find a welcoming entrance hallway, a spacious living/dining area, a fully fitted kitchen with sleek granite worktops, two bedrooms—including a master with en-suite—and a separate family bathroom.

Situated in the heart of this prestigious development, this home is offered with no upper chain. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate its unique appeal!

STEP OUTSIDE

Logan Court

Living in the Napsbury Park Development offers a rare blend of luxury, history, and natural beauty, making it a highly sought-after location for homeowners. Nestled in the tranquil Hertfordshire countryside, the development is set within the beautifully landscaped grounds of a former hospital estate, now a conservation area that boasts lush greenery, mature trees, and peaceful walking paths. Residents enjoy a unique balance of countryside serenity and easy access to nearby towns such as St Albans and London, perfect for those who appreciate both nature and convenience.

The homes in Napsbury Park, including converted apartments and townhouses, are architecturally stunning, with features such as high ceilings, large sash windows, and period charm. These properties have been thoughtfully renovated to combine modern comforts with historic character, creating elegant living spaces that offer both style and function. Spacious interiors, along with ample storage and generous room sizes, make the homes ideal for families, professionals, and retirees alike.

Additionally, the development fosters a sense of community and exclusivity, with well-maintained grounds and a range of shared amenities. Residents benefit from allocated parking, secure surroundings, and access to beautiful parklands that provide a peaceful escape from the busyness of daily life. Napsbury Park is more than just a place to live; it's a lifestyle that promotes relaxation, well-being, and an appreciation for both heritage and modernity.
