Agents Notes

Inside, the home offers plenty of space for family living, with three comfortable double bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom upstairs. A generous entrance hall sets the tone, leading to a bright through lounge and dining area, which can be cleverly divided by glazed doors, perfect for both cosy evenings and larger gatherings. The family-sized open plan kitchen/diner is a real highlight, designed with modern living in mind.

Outside, there's a pretty front garden and a delightful south and east facing rear garden, ideal for relaxing or entertaining in the sunshine. The property retains an abundance of period features, complemented by gas central heating, and is presented in excellent decorative order throughout.

Tucked away just off Portland Road in Hove, you'll find yourself moments from independent shops, cafés and excellent schools, making this the ideal setting for family life.
