A little more information

Lochranza is the most northerly village on Arran with its famous castle and sheltered anchorage. It is from here and a short walk from The Old Exchange that the ferry leaves to the Kintyre peninsula Lochranza is home to one of the two Distilleries on the island and a 9 hole golf course and campsite. At the heart of the village is a public village hall holding several events throughout the year and a small post office that is open twice a week. There is also a community owned hotel which has a bar serving pub grub, the local whisky and beer.

The local primary school with Early Years classes is located 6 miles away in Pirnmill and the high school is in Lamlash to which all pupils are transported daily by bus. The village of Pirnmill nearby also has a general store with post office and off sales and the Lighthouse Restaurant.

The Isle of Arran is a place where you can find a little bit of everything you could ever want from a Scottish island; an ever-changing coastline, dramatic mountain peaks, sheltered beaches, verdant forests, great cultural festivals and a wealth of tasty local produce.
